

For immediate release:
September 3, 2015

Contact: Cathy Shea
856-642-6226

Donna M. Agnew Named Program Director of the Salus University Physician Assistant Program

Elkins Park, PA – Donna M. Agnew, PA-C, DFAAPA has been named program director of the Salus University Physician Assistant program. Salus University is an internationally recognized academic institution offering a wide range of graduate, professional degree and post-graduate residency programs for health care professionals. Dr. Agnew brings with her more than 12 years of experience working in physician assistant education, ten of which have been as a full-time faculty member.

In her new position, Agnew will be responsible for all organization, administration, fiscal management, analysis, planning and development regarding the Physician Assistant program, as well as partake in the accreditation process.

Along with her work experience, Agnew is a member of several professional organizations, including the American Association of University Professors, Physician Assistant Education Association, Pennsylvania Society of Physician Assistants, American Academy of Physician Assistants and Bucks County Department of Health Medical Reserve Corps. She is also a site visitor for the Accreditations Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant.

Agnew received a Bachelor of Science degree in Medical Technology from Temple University in Philadelphia and a Master's degree in physician assistant studies from Arcadia University.

**###

About Salus University

Salus University, founded as the Pennsylvania College of Optometry in 1919, today is a diversified, globally recognized professional academic center of learning that offers a wide range of degree programs in the professions of Optometry, Audiology, Physician Assistant, Public Health, Education and Rehabilitation for the Blind and Visually Impaired, Biomedicine, Occupational Therapy and Speech-Language Pathology. The University has more than 1,100 students, including PhD candidates, and more than 12,500 alumni worldwide. For more information, please visit www.salus.edu.