

For Immediate Release

Contact: Cathy Shea – 856-642-6226

Ebola and Infectious Disease: Community Preparedness to be the Topic of Upcoming Salus University Salus Time Speaker Series

(Elkins Park, PA) - The Salus Time Speaker Series “Ebola and Infectious Disease: Community Preparedness” will feature a panel of experts including a professor of public health from Salus University and panel presentation by the Montgomery County Health Department. The Salus Time event will take place on Friday, January 9, 2015 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the Salus University Elkins Park, PA campus in Room S300.

Salus University is an internationally recognized academic institution offering a wide range of graduate and post-graduate degree programs for healthcare professionals. Salus Time was created to bring the university community together for scholarly functions, providing a forum for the discussion of timely topics that impact us all.

Dr. Michael Mittelman, the president of Salus University will provide welcoming remarks. Dr. Anthony Di Stefano – Salus University professor of public health will introduce panel members. Salus University presenters will include: John Gaal, vice president of clinical operations, and Lili Lang, OD-MPH student. The Montgomery County Health Department Panel presenters will include:

Brian Pasquale, MPH, Facilitator and Co-Organizer Senior Public Health Preparedness Planning

- Joseph DiMino, DO – Director of Health/Medical Director – Montgomery County Health Department
- C. Michael Baysinger, MPH - Deputy Director, Personal Health Services
- Julie Paoline, MA – Division Director, Communicable Disease
- Mark Ross – Southeastern Regional Representative, Hospital Association of PA

About Salus University:

Salus University, founded as the Pennsylvania College of Optometry in 1919, today is a diversified, globally recognized professional academic center of learning that offers a wide range of degree programs in the professions of Optometry, Audiology, Physician Assistant, Public Health, Education and Rehabilitation for the Blind and Visually Impaired, Biomedicine and Occupational Therapy. The University has more than 1,100 students, including PhD candidates, and more than 10,000 alumni worldwide. For more information, please visit www.salus.edu.