

For Immediate Release
June 8, 2020

Contact: Robyn Bland
609.760.7430

Douglas Gilbert Receives Master of Science Degree from Salus University

Elkins Park, Pa. — Douglas Gilbert, MS '20, of East Windsor, N.J., was awarded a Master of Science degree in Orientation and Mobility (O&M) from Salus University College of Education and Rehabilitation during the 120th commencement ceremony – a virtual event that streamed online May 22 due to the coronavirus pandemic.

A Rutgers University alumni who earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in labor studies in 1990 and a Master of Arts degree in labor and industrial relations in 1992, Gilbert graduated from Salus University in Elkins Park, Pa., along with nearly 300 students who also completed requirements for either master's or doctoral degrees after the 2020 spring semester.

Gilbert has low vision and also formerly worked as a travel trainer.

About Salus University

Salus University, founded as the Pennsylvania College of Optometry in 1919, today is a diversified, globally recognized professional academic center of learning that offers a wide range of degree programs in the professions of Optometry, Audiology, Physician Assistant, Public Health, Blindness and Low Vision Studies, Biomedicine, Occupational Therapy and Speech-Language Pathology. Salus operates four clinical facilities in Philadelphia and Montgomery counties that provide highly specialized vision, hearing and balance, and speech-language pathology services. The University has more than 1,200 students, and more than 14,000 alumni worldwide. For more information, please visit www.salus.edu.