

Anna Intartaglia, 215-780-1487

Salus University Hosts 2024 SEPCHE Honors Conference

Elkins Park, Pa. - Salus University is sponsoring and hosting the Southeastern Pennsylvania Consortium for Higher Education (SEPCHE) Honors Conference for the second year. The conference is an opportunity for undergraduate students at participating institutions to present scholarship in a setting beyond the classroom and individual college or university.

WHO: SEPCHE members, in addition to Salus, other members of the consortium include Arcadia University, Chestnut Hill College, Manor College, Neumann University and Rosemont College.

WHAT: The SEPCHE Honors Conference is an opportunity for undergraduate students at participating institutions to present scholarship in a setting beyond the classroom and individual college or university. Topics of the art and research that will be presented include social justice, sustainability, media and entertainment, political issues, mental health, science, history, and more. The conference provides an opportunity for students to share academic excellence, foster interdisciplinary learning, and celebrate challenging academic programs.

WHERE: Hafter Student Community Center
50 Breyer Dr, Elkins Park, PA 19027

WHEN: Saturday, March 23, 2024 at 9 a.m.

###

About Salus University

Salus University, founded as the Pennsylvania College of Optometry in 1919, today is a diversified, globally recognized professional academic center of learning that offers a wide range of degree programs in the professions of Optometry, Audiology, Physician Assistant, Blindness and Low Vision Studies, Biomedicine, Occupational Therapy,

Speech-Language Pathology and Orthotics and Prosthetics. Salus operates three clinical facilities in Philadelphia and Montgomery counties that provide highly specialized vision, hearing and balance, and speech-language pathology services. The University has more than 1,200 students, and more than 14,000 alumni worldwide. For more information, please visit www.salus.edu.

About SEPCHE

Formed in 1993, SEPCHE is a consortium of independent colleges and universities in the southeastern Pennsylvania region (Greater Philadelphia) that engage in a collaborative approach to the challenges of higher education and work together to promote quality and efficiency of academic programming, student access, faculty development, institutional operations and community outreach, through sharing a range of activities, services, technology and information.